Businesses in the Lower Mainland BC are cautioned to be on the lookout for JESSICA SERENITY SIMPSON, aka JESSICA YANIV. Simpson is accused of defrauding and extorting area businesses for personal profit by misrepresenting themselves and misleading people. Simpson recently switched to doing business as JS Simpson Group, but formerly used TrustedNerd and JY Knows IT.

Allegations against Simpson include:

- The filing of racist and profit-fueled complaints against businesses (alleging discrimination).
- Using multiple online identities to launch cyber attacks on businesses reputation, often by filing false negative reviews.
- Using online communication or hidden numbers to book appointments to ambush or entrap staff.
- Spamming social media pages with illicit content and then offering to fix the problems for a fee.
- Domain name squatting and leaking confidential information.

As business owners, you have duty to protect your staff and customers. Consult a lawyer.
