VARIATION

The conditions of this release order may be varied with the written consent of the prosecutor, yourself, and your sureties, if any. In addition, you or the prosecution may apply to a judge to have any condition in this release order cancelled or changed.

CONDITIONS IN EFFECT

The conditions indicated on this release order (including any obligations imposed on your sureties) remain in effect until they are cancelled or changed or until you have been discharged, sentenced or otherwise detained by the court (sections 763 and 764 of the Criminal Code). Any condition that requires the accused to abstain from communicating with any victim, witness or other person is in effect from the moment the order is made (s. 519(1)(c) of the Criminal Code).

CONSEQUENCES FOR NON-COMPLIANCE

- You are warned that, unless you have a lawful excuse, you commit an offence under section 145 of the Criminal Code if you fail to follow any of the conditions set out in this release order, including if you fail to attend court as required.
- If you commit an offence under section 145 of the Criminal Code, a warrant for your arrest may be issued (sections 512 and 512.3 of the Criminal Code) and you may be liable to a fine or to imprisonment, or to both.
- If you do not comply with this release order or are charged with committing an indictable offence after you have been released, this release order may be cancelled and, as a result, you may be detained in custody (subsection 524(4) of the Criminal Code).
- If you do not comply with this release order, the money or other valuable security promised or deposited by you or your surety could be forfeited (subsection 771(2) of the Criminal Code).
