- The Tribunal publishes a hearing schedule (list of upcoming hearings) with the parties' names and the area and ground of a complaint.
- After a complaint is on the hearing schedule, the public has access to information, including the complaint and response forms (except contact information).
- Hearings are open to the public.

You can ask the Tribunal to limit the information it makes public. However, the Tribunal will only do so if it decides that the privacy interests of the person you represent outweigh the public interest in access to the Tribunal's proceedings.
